FREE BILINGUAL COMMUNITY EVENT:
Housing Information and Resources
Información y recursos de vivienda

The Charleston County Criminal Justice Coordinating Council (CJCC) invites you to the next Community Justice Forum, to be held at the Keith Summey Public Library Tuesday, July 11 from 5:45 – 7:00 pm. During the forum, titled “Housing Information and Resources/ Información y recursos de vivienda” panelists will share information about how to connect with wrap-around support programs, home rental programs, home ownership programs for those earning less than $110K, and financial literacy programs. The panelists are:

- Craig Logan, Housing Executive Fellow, Charleston Metro Chamber of Commerce
- Latosha Jenkins-Fludd, Director, The Hope Center

Christopher Welch, CJCC Community Representative, will serve as moderator. This event includes live English-to-Spanish interpretation by Maricela Villalobos. Interested community members should reserve their spot here: bit.ly/3rbcxHl.

This event is free and open to the public.

“Data shows us the connectivity between housing challenges and jail use. Understanding the context behind the data, real people facing real situations, gives us a better understanding of how we can make a difference,” stated Dr. Ashleigh Wojslawowicz, CJCC Research Manager.

About the CJCC

*The CJCC is a collaboration of elected and senior officials, law enforcement leaders, judicial and court leadership, behavioral health professionals, victim and legal advocates, and various community leaders working in service of the Charleston community. The mission of the CJCC is to assist in making sustainable, data-driven improvements to Charleston County’s criminal justice system and thereby improve public safety and community well-being. The CJCC is currently jointly funded by Charleston County and a Safety + Justice Challenge grant from the John D. and Catherine T. MacArthur Foundation.
