

News Release

March 5, 2024

MEDIA CONTACT:

Adina Baer Gross, Communications & Community Engagement
Office: (843) 529-7327/ Cell: (843) 259-9820
Email: abgross@charlestoncounty.org

The Charleston County Criminal Justice Coordinating Council (CJCC) Opens Applications for Community Representatives

North Charleston, SC – The Charleston County Criminal Justice Coordinating Council is now accepting applications for the 2024 – 2026 community representative term. The CJCC is seeking community members to fill the following positions:

- Local graduate program community in a related field of study
- Local community-at-large
- One designated liaison from any other entity deemed appropriate by the Executive Committee

“The CJCC has a successful track record of using collaboration, partnership, and data to make our community a better place,” stated Anthony Bishara, Ph.D., Graduate Community Representative in a Related Field of Study when asked why he serves.

Community representatives attend and participate in CJCC meetings and workgroups. They provide critical feedback from the community in the CJCC process. The community representatives elect one community representative to serve as the third member on the CJCC Executive Committee.

The 2024 – 2026 community representative application is due to the CJCC by 5 p.m. on Friday, April 26, 2024. To obtain an application, please visit <https://bit.ly/CJCCCommRep>.

The Criminal Justice Coordinating Council (CJCC) is a local data-driven criminal justice fusion center empowering local stakeholders.
The CJCC is a part of Charleston County's Department of Public Safety.
To learn more about the CJCC, visit our website:
cjcc.charlestoncounty.org

